KHH Asian Adoptee Youth Group

[7th – 12th grade] $25 per session

One Saturday a month from 10:30 am – 12:00 pm, Teenage Asian Adoptees are invited to meet with adult mentors at the KHH. The mission of this youth group is to give the teens focused exercises and time to think about what identity is. They will learn to express themselves through writing and other artistic mediums like sculpture and photography. Each session new topic will be introduced and discussed, mediated by Brooke Newmaster. Guest artists and good Asian role models will be featured each semester. Mentors and Teens are encouraged to have lunch at Sole Café together afterwards.

Some examples are:

- Workshop with an Asian actor or musician, or visual artist
- Discussions about racism, adoption & identity
- A writing lesson with an accomplished Adoptee in the field
- Watching interesting films and discussing them
- Presentations by the teens about their birth county
- Volunteering opportunities to mentor younger adoptees

If the KHH Asian Adoptee Youth Club grows in membership, the program will expand to 2 times a month!
